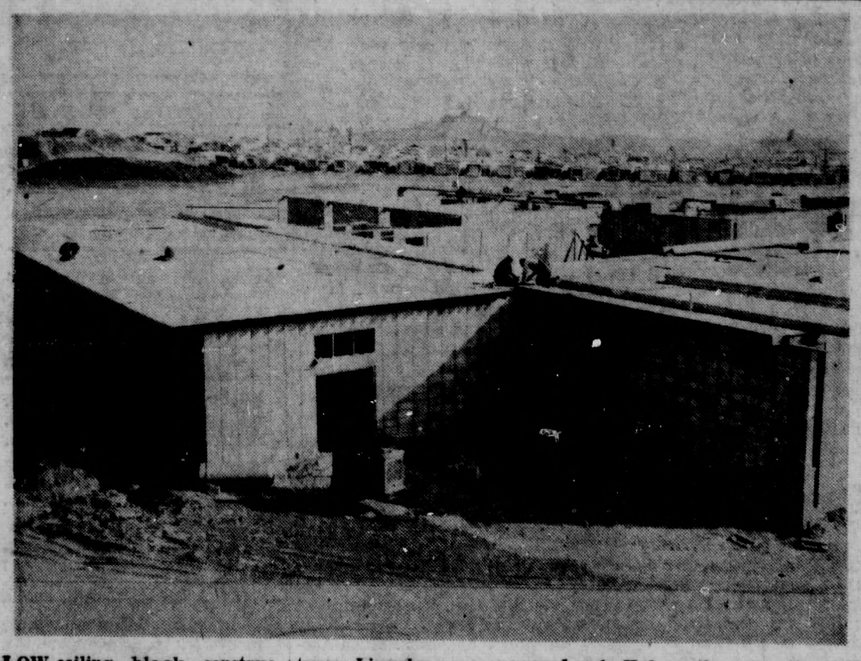
Council Trying To Avert $171,000 Deficit Prospect!



LOW-ceiling block construction prevails at Thomas Edison K-6 school, nearing completion on the southwest corner of a two-school site between Lincoln avenue and Southgate avenue in Westlake near Westmoor High School. This school should be ready by mid-February. Abraham Lincoln K-6, on the same site, will be finished shortly thereafter, as will Daniel Webster K-6 in St. Francis Heights.

ERRORS IN ESTIMATES

Budget Won't Balance Unless Cuts Are Made

Daly City councilmen, already embarrassed by awkward budget blunders, have still a more serious predicament on their hands today—an expected $171,935 deficit unless they make transfers and heavy cuts in planned expenditures before the fiscal year ends next June.

This latest revelation was exposed to the council last week by City Finance Director Joseph Arch during a special budget meeting. His report indicated that the city administration had critically overestimated general fund income for the present budget, and that expenditures approved by the council in cutting the property tax rate to 90 cents per $100 can't be balanced by revenue due before July 1 of 1960.

Arch, who repeated his report by council request before the public Monday night, said tentative projections by his office now show that the budget will not balance at the end of this fiscal year—in fact, the budget will be in the "red" by the estimated $171,935.63—the amount that expenditures would exceed estimate of income.

Although the council obviously "played down" the significance of Arch's findings on the deficit possibility Monday night, not qualifying its seriousness in detail, all five councilmen are completely aware of the jeopardy of the situation.

Mayor Edward Dennis, informing the newspaper immediately of Arch's alarming report last week, Monday night declared that while the problem is serious it could be met and worked out.

Dennis told the newspaper that "immediate economy measures must be taken by us to trim planned expenditures in the present budget through next June."

The council has ordered a meeting with all department heads this Friday noon at Westlake Bowl to apprise them of the cuts that will be required to help avert the deficit possibility.

Arch has pointed out that there are surplus funds available in the present budget for transfers to the general fund, which, supplemented by reductions in departmental expenditures, will ward off the prospect of a deficit.

The finance director said that overal expected surplus this fiscal year totals $215,517.36, compared to the general fund deficit estimate of $171,935. But in actuality, of the total expected surplus of $215,517, only the $102,112 surplus in the water fund can be used for transfer to aid the general fund, since the remaining surplus funds are restricted and encumbered.

Even use of the "conservative" estimate of $102,112 surplus in the water fund (all this money normally is needed for water system improvements) will still leave the city some $69,000 short of what is needed to eliminate the expected general fund total deficit of $171,936. The balance of money

CITY MANAGER CHOICE DUE DECEMBER 28

Announcement of Daly City's new city manager may be made at the December 28 regular meeting of the council, Mayor Edward Dennis hinted today.

The council reportedly has narrowed their choice of five city managers recommended by the State Personnel Board down to two. By the end of next week, Dennis said he felt the council would make its decision. Meanwhile, all five councilmen have talked to the remaining two candidates and have visited the cities in which the pair are employed.

Dennis called a personnel meeting to Monday's council session, in which he and the council met with Public Works Director Otis Calhoun. Although the meeting was legally closed to the press, it was apparent Calhoun has been asked to resign and seek employment elsewhere.

Calhoun made no comment on the closed meeting, for obvious reasons. It is not unlikely that he may leave the city's ranks before the new city manager arrives.

The controversy over Calhoun's status erupted last month when word leaked out that the council was dissatisfied with his services. Councilman Francis Pacelli went so far as to suggest that the position of public works director doesn't exist here on paper.

The council, however, never has publicly said one way or another how they feel about Calhoun's performance. The public works chief has asked for the council's opinion in a public meeting.

'Skyscraping Bob' Ready To Take-off Against Jet Noise

Mayor Edward Dennis appointed Councilman Bob St. Clair as Daly City's representative to the north county "Anti-Jet Noise Committee" at Monday night's meeting.

Dennis said north county officials are "increasingly alarmed over the jet-caused problems and efforts must be made to protest certain air patterns."

St. Clair, although surprised by the momentous appointment, readily consented to the task.

"I guess I'm elected," he commented. "I'm closer to the situation, anyhow."

For the benefit of the uninitiated, pro footballer St. Clair stands 6-9. Yes, he's closer to the sky than his fellow councilmen!

Old Building Burns

Captain Allen Brush said that 12 Daly City firemen responded to a fire at an old barn, or ranch house, at the Marcelli property in the Crocker hills last Sunday at 2:40 a.m.

He said the old building was so badly burned the firemen just stood there and watched it, assuring first that no one was in the house and later that the flames would not spread. Brush said there was on estimate of the damage.

WESTLAKE TRAGEDY

Mom Who Strangled Infant Son Held To Superior Court

The young Westlake housewife who strangled her six-weeks-old son with a necktie on November 27 is free on $5000 bail and faces a first degree murder charge in superior court.

Mrs. Edyth E. Levine, of 1106 87th street, waived preliminary hearing in municipal court before Judge Charles Becker last Thursday. The 31-year-old woman is represented by Nathan Cohn, one of the nation's most prominent attorneys.

Daly City police Capt. Roy Beecher said Mrs. Levine, confined to Community Hospital after the incident on November 27, has refused to comment on why she took the life of the baby boy, Stephen Richard Levine.

Her husband, Richard, a retail advertising salesman, told officers that his wife had threatened to take her own life and that of her two children before she strangled Stephen. Apparently the woman has been emotionally unstable for some time.

The Levines' other child is a four-year-old daughter.

Beecher noted it was unusual that Mrs. Levine was released on bail. In similar cases, persons normally are held in custody until a court decision is rendered.

SHOWDOWN MEET ON DC FREEWAY ROUTE JANUARY 13

Daly City's freeway committee, which gathered again on Wednesday night at City Hall, got word last week that the State Division of Highway's public hearing on the Junipero Serra freeway route would be held on Wednesday, January 13, at 2 p.m. in the South San Francisco High School auditorium.

A spokesman from the San Francisco office of J. P. Sinclair, assistant state highway engineer, confirmed that there would be no change in the hearing date or location. Two weeks ago, alarmed by earlier state notification that the hearing was set for January, Chairman Francis Pacelli and the DC committee by letter asked Sinclair's superiors in Sacramento to postpone the hearing for at least 90 days and hold it here instead of South SF because Daly City will be the Peninsula city most affected by the north-south route.

Last week's state announcement left no doubt that the hearing won't be changed as the state says it has to move on schedule.

In advance of the January 13 hearing in SSF, the state has set four days for map displays so that residents and officials of the Peninsula cities will be able to examine the state proposals and have them explained by State Highway Division engineers.

Detailed exhibit maps will be displayed on January 4 and 5, a Monday and Tuesday, at Crestmoor School auditorium, off Crestmoor drive in San Bruno, between the hours of 3 p.m. and 9 p.m.

Maps will also be displayed in Daly City on January 7 and 8, in the Coral Room of War Memorial Community Center, 144 Hillside boulevard, between 3 and 9 p.m.

The public hearing in South SF at 398 B street on January 13 could lead to prompt adoption by the state of the Junipero Serra route from the south city limits of San Bruno to the Daly City-San Francisco boundary.

BUSINESSMAN FOR MANAGER PLEA 'FLOPS'

Are most city manager candidates "rejects" and should Daly City recruit a professional business man instead of a new city manager to administer the municipality?

The council Monday night answered these surprise declarations that came in the form of a last-minute letter from Len McNichol, West Coast representative of the Marine Staff Officers and Allied Personnel Association, an AFL-CIO affiliate.

From the audience, McNichol asked that the letter be admitted to the agenda and read on behalf of members of his group.

In the letter and verbally, McNichol asked the council to consider hiring a professional businessman instead of a city manager, charging that the

2-WEEK-OLD WESTLAKE TOT SUFFOCATES

Two-week-old Joseph Michael Peyton, 1165 87th street, was pronounced dead on arrival at Junipero Serra Hospital Tuesday at 4:55 p.m.

Officer Phil LaBruzzo responded to the call from the tot's mother, Margaret Peyton, who said the baby apparently had suffocated in bed. LaBruzzo and the M&D Ambulance arrived at the same time. The ambulance men and fire department personnel administered oxygen but to no avail.

It was decided to take the police car to the hospital as it would be faster to transport the child. Battalion Fire Chief Wayne Alexander administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation while the car was moving.

The attending physician said the baby was dead on arrival at the hospital. The mother said Joseph had been home from the hospital for two weeks and hadn't been taken back for his first examination.

The housewife has seven other children. Her physician said he was not able to determine the caues or time of death.

COPS, FIREMEN CITED IN RUSH TO AID YOUTH

Police Officer Robert Stables and members of the Daly City fire department received a "thanks for one quick and rapid response" although their aid was not needed in relieving a choking one-year-old boy Friday at 5:50 p.m.

Lawrence Lipnick, 39, of Skyline drive, called police to report his young son Gregory was choking and couldn't catch his breath. The boy had eaten a pice of candy that became lodged in his throat. It dissolved in the short space of time it took police and firemen to speed to the scene.

OK $143,700 For Library In Westlake

John A. Nelson, San Francisco contractor, Monday night was awarded the $143,700 job of building Daly City's new library branch in Westlake on the south side of Southgate avenue next to the postoffice. Construction will begin within two weeks.

Nelson's firm was the lowest of seven bidders. Others seeking the job were: McBroom and Cecchini, Oakland, for $145,875; C. J. Collins Company, San Francisco, $145,961; Peter Sartorio, Colma, $146,614; Filo Corporation, Redwood City, $148,700; Joseph Bettencourt, South San Francisco, $151,151, and Stenmark Construction, San Francisco, alternate bids of $150,000 and $159,000.

In other agenda business, the council:

1. Moved for payment of $19,000 to Van Pelt Inc. of Oakdale for the second new fire-pumper truck.

2. Filed a letter from St. Francis Heights Improvement Association asking the council to keep the office of director of public works. The council made no comment on the letter or the status of Otis Calhoun, public works director.

3. Denied by 3-2 vote dance permit request filed by Alice Jordan for Lowell High (San Francisco) student dance this Saturday night at Westlake auditorium. Mayor Dennis and Councilman Bob St. Clair voted for the permit. Verducci, Pacelli and DeBernardi feel the auditorium should be used primarily by Daly City residents and that such dances create the necessity of more police supervision of the auditorium area.

4. Closed public hearing on Callan Company's request for the vacation of a 30x100-foot

Fifth Grader Arrested As Bank-buster

A 12-year-old Woodrow Wilson fifth grader was taken to Hillcrest Juvenile Detention home early this week after admitting stealing money from small change banks in the home of Darrell Wagen Coursey, 33 Knowles avenue, on three separate occasions.

When Officer Tom Culley told the mother the boy would be given a citation to Hillcrest, she insisted that the boy be taken immediately. Culley said the woman, 40, is a widow with four children and living conditions in the home are poor.

Culley noted that the home should be investigated for the welfare of the children.

Coursey, 25, assistant manager of a service station, told police of money being taken from his banks on October 3, December 6 and 7. The savings had been placed in the banks for his two tots. The bank tops had been cut off by use of a can opener.

ONE FOR RIPLEY— CAR IN GARAGE HIT BY ANOTHER

An auto belonging to Rudolph Fellman, 110 Bismark street, was involved in a collision while it was parked in the garage Friday evening.

Minor damage was done to the parked auto though the garage doors and entrance did not fare as well when a motorist could not apply his brakes and rammed into the building.

Jon T. Anderegg, 20, an apprentice metalman for Ace Sheetmetal, 1355 Fitzgerald street, San Francisco, was cited for knowingly operating a vehicle without brakes. Officer Steven Steen tried the brakes after the accident and they would not "pump-up."

PIONEERS HERE

Elderly Colma Couple Succumb, Victims Of Tragic Asphyxiation

Herman and Emma Nessier, Colma residents for more than 65 years, were laid to rest Tuesday in Olivet Memorial Park—victims of a tragic mishap December 8 at their home, 1196 Hillside boulevard.

The retired nurseryman, 73, and his 67-year-old wife, died from asphyxiation, presumably caused by poor air circulation and a too high furnace temperature.

Both had seen a doctor the day before and were weak from the flu. Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage, responding to the scene with Officer Al Nickas, said the room was "awfully warm and all the windows of the home were closed."

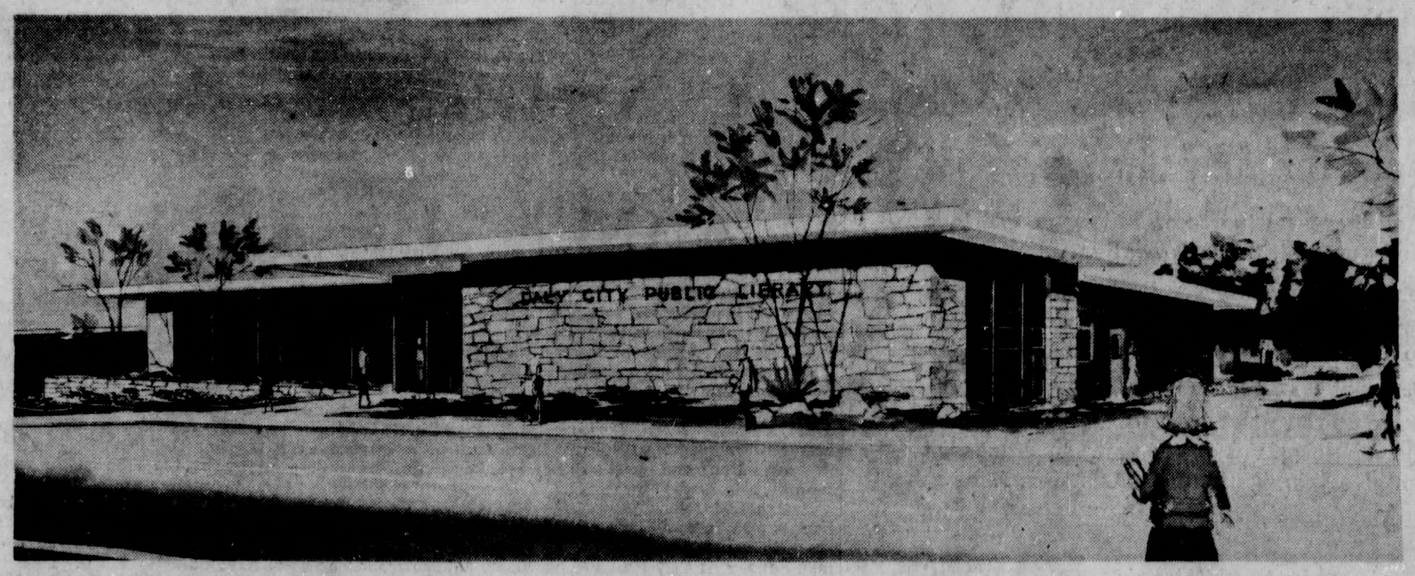
Herman was dead when Savage and Nickas arrived. Mrs. Nessier was unconscious. She was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital but succumbed shortly thereafter.

Savage, called to the home by the elderly couple's daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Smyth of South San Francisco, said Herman and Emma were fully clothed and were lying on their bed. Apparently they had been resting the night before, fell asleep, and then were overcome by lack of oxygen.

Both victims were natives of California.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at W. C. Lasswell and Company.

Survivors include Herman's brother, Walter; his two sisters, Mrs. Carrie Kelly and Mrs. Mary Babcock, and three grandchildren, Mrs. Vivian Homer, John Nessier and Emilie Smyth.



DALY CITY residents will have this $143,700 Westlake branch library at their disposal next summer. The city council Monday night awarded the construction contract to the lowest of seven bidders, John A. Nelson Inc. of San Francisco. Architect is John Gloe, a resident of Westlake. Site is located on Southgate avenue across from Elmwood drive. Gloe also designed the city's new fire station.

Sewer District Lab Expansion Will Cost $800

North San Mateo County Sanitation District members last week accepted a bid of $800 from P. Martire and Son for an enlargement of the laboratory at the district plant in order to make more comprehensive checks for water pollution control.

The $800 bid was the lowest of two bids. The other was from L. J. Canepa Company at $1050.

District members perused a map showing sewer improvements on B and D streets and First avenue in Colma. They aproved two of the improvements but will study D street further.

In other business, the board notified Safeway Market it would be billed retroactively for the installation of a disposal unit which was put in without permission from the district.

A report from A. Silveira on the three-month rodent control survey and baiting program showed district sewers were clean and rodent free of any infestation. The board also hired Stephen Sullivan as a sewer maintenance worker.

BOXER, BUDDY FIRE HEROES IN WESTLAKE

Bobby Scanlon, eighth ranked lightweight boxing contender, found a new foe last Friday at 11:12 p.m. and, as usual, he came out victorious.

He and George Bajada, 25, 1254 Southgate avenue, were driving by the home of Mr. and Mrs. Landon Day, 658 Southgate avenue, when they noticed flames pouring from the living room window.

They grabbed a garden hose, broke a front window, and poured water on the furniture. While doing this they instructed their wives to turn in an alarm. By the time the fire department arrived the two young men had the fire almost completely doused.

Battalion Fire Chief Wayne Alexander said that Scanlon, a San Francisco State College student, and Bajada's quick action kept damage down to $1500. No one was home when the blaze started.

Employee Saves TV Store Boss One Video Set

Employees like Robert Mizak are hard to find.

Mizak, of Peninsula TV Service, 6630 Mission street, chased a culprit by car until he recovered a stolen portable TV set that the man left in his car.

Last Wednesday at 7:50 p.m., a man entered the store and then walked out with the $179 portable TV. Mizak saw the man get into a green, 1947 model sedan and pursude him around streets on the west side of Mission street until the auto came to a stop on San Diego avenue near Marchbanks Park.

Mizak retrieved the slightly damaged set from the rear seat and returned it to the store, not attempting to further chase the fleeing thief. He did take down the license plate number, however, and turned it over to police.

The auto was registered to Mose Johnson, 440 Scott street, San Francisco. Officer Tom Culley checked with San Francisco police and found that Johnson had been arrested for a drunk driving charge in 1949.

Mrs. Constance Jones, 438 Scott street, the owner of the house that Johnson supposedly lived in, said she has been in charge of the house for 10 years and no one by the name of Mose Johnson ever lived there.

The description the store owner and Mizak gave to police matched the description San Francisco police had on file of Johnson.

City Manager

Many city hall observers feel Calhoun knows the cards are stacked against him and that opposing any firing move would only handicap his chances for another good job.

The council has been unusually silent about the Calhoun rumors in recent public sessions. Their last public utterance about Calhoun was that they would wait until the new city manager began duties here and made an evaluation of the public works directorship.

BUSINESSMAN FOR MANAGER

majority of city manager candidates are "rejects . . . after being fired or dismissed in other cities," and that city managers here "have a history of incompetency and have shown no responsibility to the people."

He added that many city managers are openly "anti-labor" and that a businessman would do a better job for the city. McNichol said he was writing the letter and making the suggestion because many members of the group he represents live in Daly City and are concerned about the choice of a competent administrator.

"The council firmly decided that our next city manager would have to be a city manager at present, and we are near a decision in choosing the best of five top men recommended by the State Personnel Board," Dennis retorted.

Councilman Joseph Verducci virtually seconded Dennis' reply, telling McNichol, "I'm sure this council will never select a man who's anti-labor, particularly since the mayor is a union man himself."

Councilman Bob St. Clair was a bit more vociferous in answering McNichol.

"I disagree," said St. Clair, "with your statement about city manager candidates being rejects."

"This is far from the truth," he continued. "The State Personnel Board has carefully screened qualfiied men for us, and you can be sure we will try to select a man who will do a good job in handling city affairs."

McNichol and one associate then asked for additional discussion, but Dennis ended the episode by declaring McNichol "out of order" in pursuing the matter.

9 CANDIDATES FOR TWO DC POLICE JOBS

Daly City's personnel board last Thursday announced the order of finish by nine candidates for two police officer openings and one maintenance foreman appointment.

All three jobe are authorized in the present city budget. Test results have been forwarded to the council for decision on putting the new patrolmen to work and naming the public works department promotional selection.

Phillip Brown, city admisistrative assistant, said there were originally 50 men who applied for police patrolman, offering a starting salary of $449 a month. This total then was screened down to 26 for the written exam. Fourteen passed this hurdle and advanced to the oral examination. Thirteen were left for the final phase, the agility test, and four were eliminated.

In order of finish, the police candidates are: Robert Benassini, Richard Parr, Frank Benaderet, Wesley Wilkinson, Lawrence Kier, Harold Tunnell, David Vargo, Ronald Baldin and Dennis Sheehy. By city rules and regulations, the choice of the two men is restricted to the top three finishers on the exam. Since there are two openings in police this time, the top four men will be considered for the appointments.

The position of maintenance foreman, authorized for the first time last year, offers a salary range of $495-$573. Three public works employees and one city fireman took this promotional exam. The results posted by the personnel board listed Albert Lewis on top, followed by Joe H. Bloem, Charles Rivera and Frank Ramos.

Lewis, employed here since April of '52, currently is classified as a maintenance man II. Bloem, of 740 Niantic avenue, has been employed here since November of 1953 and is serving in the temporary capacity of maintenance foremen — the job the four men are seeking. Rivera, 598 Crocker avenue, is a fireman, having worked for the city since July of 1954. Ramos, of 40 Fairmont drive, is maintenance man in classification. I. He has worked here since last March.

Chairman Mel Battye announced the personnel board will hold a special meeting this Friday evening at City Hall to give results of the examination for the new position of senior recreation leader. Eight persons took the written exam for this $408-$471 salary range position. Two passed it, but only one showed up for the oral interview. The woman who took the oral exam has been working here as a temporary employee in recreation the past few months.

Battye and fellow personnel board members Joe Schultz, Robert Young and John Drye met Sunday at City Hall in an extraordinary session to finalize their recommendations after study of the State Personnel Board survey of the city's municipal jobs.

DEFICIT

needed to erase any deficit, therefore, has to come from cutting expenditures in many city departments.

Dennis pointed out that the council's planned cuts in the already adopted departmental budgets "would not affect basic services to the people." What will be cut will be many items that aren't essential and could be budgeted for in the future.

The mayor last week hurriedly appointed a committee to study the deficit problem. This group is headed by Councilmen Micheal DeBernardi and Bob St. Clair and includes Arch and City Auditor Bob Hunter.

Dennis said Monday night that the committee as yet hadn't had time to come up with any solutions to the predicament or suggestions as to what cuts and transfers specifically will be forthcoming. But there is no doubt action will be taken by the council as soon as the best corrective steps can be ascertained by the committee.

Arch's report on the total expected surplus of $215,517 showed in addition to the expected general fund deficit of $171,935, a projected $1878 deficit in the parks fund.

Projected surpluses in other funds by next June are restricted in their use and can't be transferred by the council to balance the would-be deficit in the general fund.

These restricted surpluses are: $70,617 in the special gas tax fund, $60,558 in water replacement and extension, $24,250 in water bond reserve, $73,594 in capital outlay, $28,574 in the recreation bond fund, $23,163 in the fire bond fund, $5444 in the library fund, and $1017 in employees retirement fund.

Transfers to the general fund from the available water fund surplus of more than $100,000 are necessary to help balance the budget. But by taking this money from the water reserve fund, water department improvements, long endorsed by the council, will be seriously impeded and delayed.

Likewise, cuts in departmental budgets will postpone indefinitely improvements in many city departments.

Errors in budgetary judgment were accompanied by lack of foresight in approving the lower tax rate for the present fiscal year. By dropping the tax rate to 90 cents from 92 cents the year before and $1.48 two years previously, the council now finds itself critically short of general fund tax revenue.

Result of the transfers of surplus funds and departmental budget cuts could necessitate a heavy tax increase next fiscal year and a delay in water department improvements. Water revenue is the city's main asset. Surplus this year from this money-maker (water) must be transferred out of this department to balance the budget.

School Board Mulls Religious Holiday Policy

Jefferson High School District trustees at first rejected a proposed religious holiday policy and then tabled the matter Monday night in order that Superintendent Ed Morgan could further check the legality of such a policy.

The policy as submitted by Morgan, with a slight change in wording by trustee Robert Rockstein, reads: "On approval of the district superintendent, members of all religious faiths will be granted leaves from their duties on their major religious observance days without loss of pay. Substitutes shall be provided, if necessary, for certified personnel."

Rockstein asked for the change in wording at the December 1 meeting, two weeks previous, deleting the parenthesized words in the phrase—"all religious faiths (other than Christian) will be granted . . ."

The purpose for the deletion was not made to segregate or categorize according to faith, said Rockstein. However, this point is most important in the proposed policy, and therefore is listed here.

At first, Trustee Lyal Ingersoll made the motion against such a policy. Trustee Anna Eason seconded the motion. This was later rescinded so that Morgan could look into the legality of such a policy.

Ingersoll said, "I am not against giving persons of other than Christian religions a day off on major observance days, but I am against paying them for it and also paying a substitute to take their place. This is making taxpayers give funds for religious holidays and this is not in accordance with law."

Morgan said, "I do not believe it is against the law, as most districts have such a policy, including San Mateo, Sequoia, San Francisco and Jefferson Elementary District."

Trustee James Cooper said, "I hate to see this district placed in the position of recognizing only one religious faith. We should take a liberal view."

"if such a policy were passed, wouldn't it open up a multitude of problems," Trustee Elio Fontana asked Morgan.

Morgan replied, "Our country opened its door to a multitude of problems when it opened its arms to people of all religious; and I'm sure we're better off for it."

The superintendent added, "we are one of the last districts not to have such a policy on its books. American people have the right to worship, whether being of the predominant religion (Christian in the United States) or not."

Ingersoll stated, "What of the person without a religion? Is he not being penalized in such a case? Also, those who receive these one or two holidays during the year are getting these days off in addition to those generally observed."

The 35-minute discussion ended with Morgan instructed to look into the legality of such a policy and to report at the December 28 meeting.

Blaze Brings $4000 Damage To DC House

More than $4000 damage was done to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman D. Schestand, 312 Chester street, Saturday at 11 a.m., as a fire started in the basement on a bench containing some paint and paint thinner.

Aside from the smoke damage that was done upstairs, a fibre glass boat in the basement was damaged. The cause of the fire is not known.

Battalion Fire Chief Wayne Alexander and six Daly City firemen had the blaze under control within 10 minutes after the call came from the alarm box.

Builder Files First Map On El Dorado Apts.

Daly City planning commission last week approved Gus Pedemonte's tentative map for his proposed "El Dorado Park" apartments on Price and Garibaldi streets east of Mission and just west of Hillside boulevard.

Pedemonte seeks to subdivide the 100-foot-wide empty lots on Price into 25-foot lots. Most of his lots fronting the south side of Garibaldi already conform to the 25-foot width specifications.

Opposed by many homeowners on Garibaldi who fought the apartments before the planners and council in earlier meetings, Pedemonte agreed to install a street 200 feet long connecting dead-end Garibaldi to Price. This link, to be paid for by the builder, will allow two-way traffic and will be about 32 feet wide, according to Public Works Director Otis Calhoun.

OBITUARIES

EMILIANO BORELLI

Services Monday at Lasswell's paid final tribute to Emiliano Louis Borelli, 25-year resident of Daly City who died at Community Hospital December 9 after a long illness.

Safety Council Asks Employers To 'Dry Up' Holiday Parties

The request came from the San Francisco Chapter, National Safety Council, which blames the flowing bowl at the office party for getting the Christmas traffic toll off to a dizzy, dangerous start.

"Our surveys," said the Council, "show that a sizeable percentage of Christmas traffic accidents occur in the early hours of the holiday period. Many of these can be traced back to the office party and its highball hilarity."

The Council emphasized it is not trying to dampen the traditional Christmas spirit.

"Just the opposite," it asserted. "We are trying to eliminate a definite source of highway accidents — accidents which can completely ruin Christmas for anyone they touch.

"You just can't have a merry Christmas if someone you love is hurt or killed."

The San Francisco Chapter is asking its 600 business and industrial member companies to take a new look at their office parties and either keep the cork in the bottle or eliminate the parties.

It is also enlisting the support of churches of every faith and creed in a united effort to keep the threat of drinking drivers to a minimum over the Christmas holiday season.

"Drinking and driving," it is said, "are a lethal combination —not only at Christmas parties, but any time, anywhere.

"And it is especially and tragically ironic to celebrate Christmas—a holiday dedicated to 'Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men'—by turning people loose on the public highway in a condition to injure or destroy their fellow men.

"There is no better place to apply practical religion than behind the wheel of a car. And certainly there is no better place to express good will toward men.

"The most dangerous drink ever concocted is 'One for the Road.'"

DC Bank Man Chairman Of 'Dimes' Drive

C. N. Anderson, assistant cashier at the Bank of America branch in Daly City, has been appointed city chairman for Daly City of the 1960 "New March of Dimes" campaign next month, it was announced today.

The appointment was made at a pre-campaign luncheon in San Mateo, attended by volunteer workers from throughout the county.

"We are happy to welcome Mr. Anderson as our new chairman for Daly City," T. J. Hallinan, county director of the "New March of Dimes" drive, said at the luncheon. "This is an important part of our county area which we hope hope to cover completely in January, and feel our drive is in good hands again."

Anderson succeeds Rudolph Krevolt, also of the Bank of America branch in Daly City who recently was transferred to the Redwood City branch.

Plans for the 1960 drive were outlined at the luncheon. Others from Daly City and vicinity present included Jay F. Irick, of the Westlake branch of the Bank of America, and city chairman there; Mrs. J. B. Mills of San Bruno, president of the Seventeenth District of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers; and Mrs. Vivian Stewart, of South San Francisco, north county general chairman for the "Mothers March" phase of the 1960 campaign.

The drive officially starts January 1, Hallinan explained, and continues throughout the first month of the new year, as usual, to raise funds to "continue the fight on polio, far from licked as yet, and to support the expanded public health program of The National Foundation now."

'Girlie' Mags Urge Youth To Sex Crimes, Francis Tells PTA

"Millions of lewd magazines and pictures are readily accessible to California's children today and most of their parents don't know it," Assemblyman Louis Francis of San Mateo County told members of the Mills High School PTA last week in Millbrae.

"Consequently, this results in public apathy and indifference which are largely responsible for flooding of newsstands, magazine racks, and the mails with smut magazines, nude pictures and sexy literature," he declared.

Francis, who is the former chairman of the State Assembly Judiciary Subcommittee on Pornographic Literature, reported that his legislative group found over a "500 Million Racket" in the sale of smut materials after a two-year study and investigation.

"We estimated that approximately 75 per cent of these lewd and obscene publications fall into the hands of teenagers. They are a "menace to the youth of our state and certainly contribute to the moral corruption of our children," stressed Francis.

"Most parents are unaware of the extent of this filth which is freely sold on thousands of newsstands, neighborhood candy drug and grocery stores, supermarkets and transportation stations and terminals. Teenagers do not openly read these magazines in their homes," he explained.

These lewd and lascivious magazines go far beyond the traditional "girlie" or "cheescake" types. They are not magazines with photographs of women in scanty or revealing bathing suits, lingerie or playsuits. Usually these magazines display completely nude women in suggestive poses. Many are full of sex perversions and sexual violence."

"It has become a nearly billion-dollar-a-year business with an estimated circulation of over 20 million periodicals a month" he exclaimed.

His legislative committee has learned from law enforcement authorities and psychistrists that this pornographic literature undoubtedly contributes greatly to juvenile delinquency and is a major factor in sex crimes.

The state legislator explained to the PTA the efforts made by his committee "to combat the menace caused by the sale and distribution of lewd and obscene literature and pictures to minors."

Lions Schedule Speaker On Freeway Plans

Elio Fontana announced today that the guest speaker for the Daly City - Colma Lions Club regular meeting of December 30 at Val's Redwood Room will be J. A. Spence, an engineer with the State Division of Highways.

Spence will discuss freeway plans in the greater Daly City area.

The Lions' December 23 luncheon meet has been cancelled. Instead, members will have a breakfast meeting at the Steak Pit.

Newest member of the club is Bill Conkey, a telephone company representative here who resides in Sunnyvale.

City Seeking Polling Sites, Election Aides

Any person wishing to file an application for consideration as an election officer or to have his home considered for use as a polling place for Daly City's municipal election next April is asked to contact the City Clerk's office, 75 Wellington avenue, first floor.

City Clerk Evelyn Mosman said application forms will be sent to persons interested, all of whom must be registered voters.

Receipt of application forms from the City Clerk's office does not necessarily mean appointment to election duty, Mrs. Mosman pointed out.

AROUND TOWN

By ROY HURLBERT

Architect Mario Ciampi's eight percent services to Jefferson High School District to date have earned the award-winning gent a total of $259,331.29.

Add to this many, many contracts with Jefferson Elementary District and its easy to surmise that few architects go hungry at dinner time. Schools are just a portion of Ciampi's projects.

Two of Mario's biggest accomplishments were designing Daly City's Westmoor High and Vista Mar Elementary in Westlake.

Westmoor cost $3.5 million, compared to the $2.5 million the high school district will pay for new Oceana High in Sharp Park and $2.5 million for Terra Nova High in Linda Mar.

Westmoor was built before the district became impoverished and went on state aid. When Sacramento controls the purse strings, the days of $3.5 million high schools are long gone.

In the recent draft for new flesh, 49'ers' Pappy Waldorf and Red Hickey concentrated on linemen. It is very likely that South City's Clyde Connor will be dropped from the squad and Daly City's Bob St. Clair will be traded. Matt Hazeltine, also of South San Francisco, according to SF newsmen we know has the best chance of the three to stick with the 49ers.

The death penalty for pathetic Alexander Robillard, fixed last week by a jury in the court of Superior Judge Frank Blum, was well received by Peninsula policemen.

For many years cop killers seemingly got off with light sentences, usually with provisions for parole.

Police officers will tell you that easy penalties only encourage more crime. Bank holdups a few years ago, for instance, were few and far between. Today they are expected, mainly because those caught usually don't stay in the clink too long.

Is the name "Daly City" too insignificant for this community?

Recently we mentioned that big builders here leave out Daly City when advertising their new homes. Since then, more than a handful of residents have phoned to declare that the name "Daly City" lacks dignity. They suggest a more stately, jet-age label.

We're told that many persons want Daly City's named changed. To our knowledge, there has been no organized movement to do so, however.

Short-lived City Manager George Watts, ousted by the city council after less than a year in command, has made a few phone calls of late, telling city officials that he has been unfairly sullied over the city's budget and financial difficulties.

Watts, occupation at present unknown, says he is getting all the blame and believes he shouldn't be the whipping dog.

School trustee Tom Noonan of Jefferson Elementary District will start the New Year off with a proposal for a unified Daly City-Colma school district.

Past efforts to change the status quo of Jefferson High School District—stretching from Bayshore and Brisbane to Pacifica—ended in quick failure.

Noonan thinks one school district for DC and Colma will provide youngsters with better education and residents with more practical taxes. This time he feels local unification should exclude Bayshore, Brisbane and Pacifica. In other words, let folks outside DC-Colma take care of their own schools.

Once again Daly City police department employees are donating $2.50 each to the Police Athletic League in lieu of exchanging Christmas cards amongst themselves. The idea was conceived a year ago by veteran officer Jimmy Welsh.

There's no doubt that Daly City's personnel board, headed by meticulous Mel Battye, is rendering "exhaustive" service to the council and municipal employees.

Last Sunday, Battye and fellow commissioners John Drye, Joe Schultz and Bob Young, along with assistant city manager Phil Brown, spent eight solid hours at City Hall going over the State Personnel Board's audit of DC's municipal jobs. Sitting in were Shelby Ross, president of the employees assocation; Jay Hartman, the employees' union agent, and Nat Gaggero, representative of the employees.

WESTLAKE SCHOOL

Teachers Sponsor 'Blood Day' Here; Early Sign-ups Needed

The Jefferson Elementary Teachers' Association has set aside January 22, as Blood Donor Day. On this date, the Peninsula Memorial Blood Bank will send the Blood Mobile to Daly City. It will be stationed at the Westlake School from 3 to 7 p.m. In order to have this service brought to Daly City, 100 pre-registered donors must be guaranteed. This undertaking cannot be accomplished without the support of the community.

Participation in the blood recruitment program has eased the task of the Blood Bank in keeping hospitals steadily supplied with this life-giving commodity. Every donation made may be credited to the Blood Bank Reserve as an organization or toward personal credit. The Peninsula Memorial Blood Bank is one of the few existing Blood Banks that does not cancel the reserve credits at the end of the year. These credits continue to accumulate from year to year. Its donations are added and where personal credits are concerned, life tenure is extended.

By building up reserve blood credits, residents of Daly City-Colma are better able to take care of their own family and dependents and other members of the area, not only in case of sickness, but in any type of disaster which might strike this community. To those who have not participated in this project, it is urged that they begin now—it is one's own insurance against such time in later years when one may need blood transfusions. These donations can be applied to any friend or relative anywhere in the United States by virtue of the nation wide reciprocity system of the Blood Banks. In the meantime, donations are made available to those in desperate need. All blood credits are good until used.

Anyone wishing to donate blood on January 22, 1960, may do so by filling out an appointment card at the following locations: 123 Knowles avenue, Jefferson Elementary Administration Offices, 48 Park Plaza drive, and Marchbanks Publications, 3317 San Jose avenue, all Daly City.

Alfea Belli, chairman of J.C.T.A. Blood Bank Committee, asks that all appointment cards be returned to her by January 10, 1960, so that arrangements with Peninsula Memorial Blood Bank may be completed.

Sheetmetal Man Booked By Police On Drunk Charge

Ernest E. Wayrynen, 35, a sheetmetal worker, was carried from the doorstep at 237 Hillcrest drive to the police car, driven to the police station and arrested on a drunk charge Sunday at 4:40 a.m.

Blanche Wayrynen, 33, called police, saying Wayrynen had come to her house in a drunken condition and started a fight with William Cheek, 35, 540 Shrader street, San Francisco. Blanche said that Ernest had agreed to be driven home earlier but changed his mind and collapsed on the doorstep.

Officer Al Nicolini and Sergeant Charles Terry carried him in. Bail was set at $26.25.

Trustees Hire Already Hired Night Teachers

Trustees of the Jefferson Elementary District Monday night hired two new classified personnel and belatedly accepted 11 already employed certificated personnel.

Adult education instructors, not teaching in the day school who had never been officially hired by the board, were accepted at their present positions. The instructors, some under the employ of the district for years, include Helen Birchak, Thelma Cain, Molly Coel, Louise Fambrini, Edgar Fennessey, Helen Griffin, Margaret Griffith, Harry Nelson, Walter Odone, Catherine Seghetti and William Spry.

New personnel hired were Marie D. Spencer, as a Jefferson cafeteria helper, and Sammy D. Aquino, as a gardener at Westmoor.

Superintendent Ed Morgan noted there are 16 Jefferson and 18 Westmoor student teachers from San Francisco State working in the district.

Brisbane Shows Holiday Spirit With Big Stars

Unincorporated and wanting to remain so, the community of Brisbane is showing its usual "united" holiday spirit.

The Chamber of Commerce has installed atop several Brisbane homes some 55 Christmas stars, each eight-feet high and loaded with Xmas lights for evening-time display.

DC Police Answer 'Suicide Try' Call

Police said they received a report that Ruben O. Ruiz, 36, 74 Creston drive, Westlake, was threatening to commit suicide last Friday at 2:40 a.m.

Officer Ralph Warren and Sergeant Charles Terry entered the man's home by the garage, finding him asleep and reportedly in a drunken condition. Ruiz told the policemen he had marriage and drinking problems, and had planned to end his life but changed his mind, they said.

WITHIN two months, construction of Daly City's new fire station at the corner of Lincoln avenue and Edgemont drive in Westlake Unit 10 should be completed. The $88,000 structure was designed by Architect John Gloe and is being erected by Contractor C. J. Collins.

30,000TH APPLICANT

Social Security Pay 'Blessing' To Young Daly City Widow, Son

A young Daly City widow with a small child today became the 30,000th applicant to file for social security benefits out of the San Francisco (Mission) Social Security office.

Mrs. Margaret Mayer, of 323 Whittier street, will receive a lump-sum death payment of $255 and $83 monthly payments for her 20-month-old son, Jon, according to Mrs. Mercia Leton Kahn, district manager of the Mission Social Security office.

Mrs. Mayer is the widow of John P. Mayer who died in San Francisco on September 13. The social security benefits which Mrs. Mayer will receive are based on her husband's work and will continue for many years. For the past two years her husband was a collector for the Internal Revenue Service and his work was not covered by social security. However, prior to that he worked as an insurance claims adjuster and earned credits under the Federal social security program. During World War II he was in the military and served in the Philippines and New Guinea. While in the Army he, like other servicemen, did not pay social security taxes, but received credit for every month in the service as provided in the law for men and women who were in the armed forces during World War II and thereafter.

Mrs. Kahn said the benefits which Mrs. Mayer will receive for Jon will continue until he is 18 years old. While Mrs. Mayer is working—she is an insurance policy writer with Chubb and Son, Inc—she will only receive the lump-sum death payment and payments for Jon, but should she stop working at any time for any reason, she will then receive in addition monthly payments for herself in the amount of $83.30.

Mrs. Kahn said her office, located at 761 South Van Ness avenue, San Francisco, has recently celebrated the fifth anniversary of its opening. In the past five years her office, which serves Daly City, has processed 30,000 claims applications and has seen a tremendous expansion. When Pacifica was incorporated, points as far south as Rockaway Beach and Pedro Valley came into the servicing area of Mrs. Kahn's office. South San Francisco, Brisbane, Colma and the International Airport are also served by the Mission office.

Mrs. Mayer consented to the publication of these facts about her benefits because of the unique nature of this 30,000th milestone, and because it was believed the information would help other families understand their rights under this federal program.

Mrs. Mayer is one of the more than 13 million people throughout the nation today, who — just 20 years after the first monthly benefits were paid in January 1940—are receiving benefits at a total monthly rate of $805.5 million.

DISTRICT Manager Mrs. Mercia Leton Kahn shows the telegram received from Baltimore announcing the awarding of Social Security benefits to Mrs. Margaret Mayer of Daly City and her son Jon. Mrs. Mayer was congratulated on being the 30,000th person to apply for Social Security benefits out of the San Francisco (Mission) office.

OTHER SIDE OF THE TRACKS?

HOUSEWIFE SUGGESTS RENAMING DALY CITY TO AID REPUTATION

Dear Mr. Hurlbert:

In your column in last week's paper, you mention the fact that the name Daly City does not appear in advertisements that appear in Northern California newspapers. Well, small wonder!!! These local homebuilders are just being smart.

Say the name Daly City over to yourself a few times and see how it sounds. I come from the East and we have recently bought a home in Westlake. However, I hate it every time I have to write the name Daly City even on my return address. It sounds like its down on the other side of the tracks, so to speak. I don't consider us either sophisticated or snooty, but Westlake, California or something similar would sound so much better.

No one is ashamed of the city, as you put it, and it is far from being a hillbilly town. But homebuilders know that first impressions mean a great deal and probably know that the name of our town has been a hindred more than a help. I am not alone in thinking this either dents have mentioned the same because many Westlake resithing.

Who in the world ever named us anyhow? The same goes for the telephone exchange in this area. Both Daly City and Plaza sound about one step away from the slums and skid row. Please forward this letter to the Chamber of Commerce.

This is such a lovely area that its a shame we don't have a name that compliments it

Very truly yours,

Mrs. Ted Hansen

SSF Housewife Rips Daly City Over Freeway

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

Our home, too, will be directly affected by one of the proposed alternates of the Junipero Serra Freeway, if so adopted by the State Highway Commission.

Last winter we were informed that this "hurried public hearing," as you put it in last week's TIMES, would take place last summer. In the fall we were promised that it would be definitely held in January '61. We are anxious to have it and get over with and a solution reached one way or another. What will procrastinating another 90 days prove?

The Junipero Serra Freeway is a must and is not going to abruptly end at Alemany. It is coming through and has already affected thousands. What makes Westlake and St. Francis Heights so different—except that they are restraining the inevitable march of progress.

Where has Daly City been all this time—asleep, satisfied, or too confused straightening out their own "questionable local government?"

Bowlin' Them Over In W'Lake

By Leon Conn

The tempo is increasing at Swanson's Westlake lanes as the bowlers are coming through with higher scores and series. The way the lumber is being hit there is a great possibility that the high game of 280 by Primo Liberatore will soon go by the boards.

Norman Butler Jr. of Dick's Sawdust Eaters in the Westlake Knolls league had golden opportunity to tie the high game mark. Starting with a strike, spare, strike and seven more strikes in a row, Norm needed two more, but he went across the head pin in the eleventh frame and finished with a 267 game.

No bowler has hit a 700 series for three games, on the Westlake lanes as yet, but Bill Hawk of the H. Moffatt Meats in the Southwest Handicap loop gave the railbirds a thrill. Leading off with 228 game, Bill came through with a big 255 second game for a two game total of 483. Needing 213 for the big series, Bill had nothing but bad breaks as splits ruined his chances and he wound up with 647.

Ed Scott was really hot in the Furance league with games of 210-210-201 for 622. Ed led his teammates to the high game mark 1989, and high series 2753, for the loop.

High series in the 99'ers mixed loop went to Bob Campodonico with 571 that included games of 203 and 205. Jules Cohen had the high game of 242. Shirley Zatcoff turned in the 4-7-10 and the 3-10-7 splits. Betty Cunningham also turned in a difficult split, the 6-7-10. Idele Newell led the fair sex for the high series as she totaled 522.

George Santos had a 617 series in the T.G.I.F. league on games of 202-201-214.

W'LAKE BASIN SCHOOL READY BY NEXT JULY

Work has begun on the new Fernando Rivera School in the Westlake Basin north of Westlake Park with E. H. Moore and Sons of San Francisco as contractors. Completion date for the school is July 30, next year, according to School Superintendent Richard L. Foster.

The playground facilities of the new school will be developed jointly by Jefferson Elementary School District and the city of Daly City.

In February, of 1958, the school district's board of trustees asked the boys and girls of two fourth grade classes at Westlake School, who were studying early California, to submit names for the new school.

Mrs. Mary Harden's and Louise Lindheimer's classes then formed research committees under the leadership of Barton Irick and Janis Bell.

After much research into the history of San Mateo County, the name of Fernondo Rivera was submitted. Captain Fernando Rivera was a Spanish explorer, who in 1769 traveled through what is now San Mateo County.

When completed in July, the school will have 12 classrooms, 1 kindergarten, and a multi-use room, and will house approximately 450 children.

Vista Grande Church Plans Xmas Program

A Christmas musical program with a Nativity scene will be presented by the choir of Vista Grande Avenue Christian Church this Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, under the direction of Mrs. Adele Adier, minister of music.

The public is invited.

Westmoor Students Teachers Tour Electronics Plant

Industrial Education Department members and students from Westmoor High School recently accompanied the San Mateo Industrial Education Association on a field trip to the Eimac Corporation in San Carlos.

Over fifty teachers and students observed methods of producing sending tubes, radar units, and space vehicles.

Cigarette Lighter Source Of Trouble

A short in the wiring caused by a penny being placed in the cigarette lighter of the auto of H. M. Thompson accounted for minor damage to his vehicle at 3:35 a.m. Sunday in Westlake.

Daly City firemen instructed Thompson to have his auto towed from its Lake Merced boulevard and Southgate avenue parking place to a nearby service station.

DC Mail Carrier Jailed As Drunk

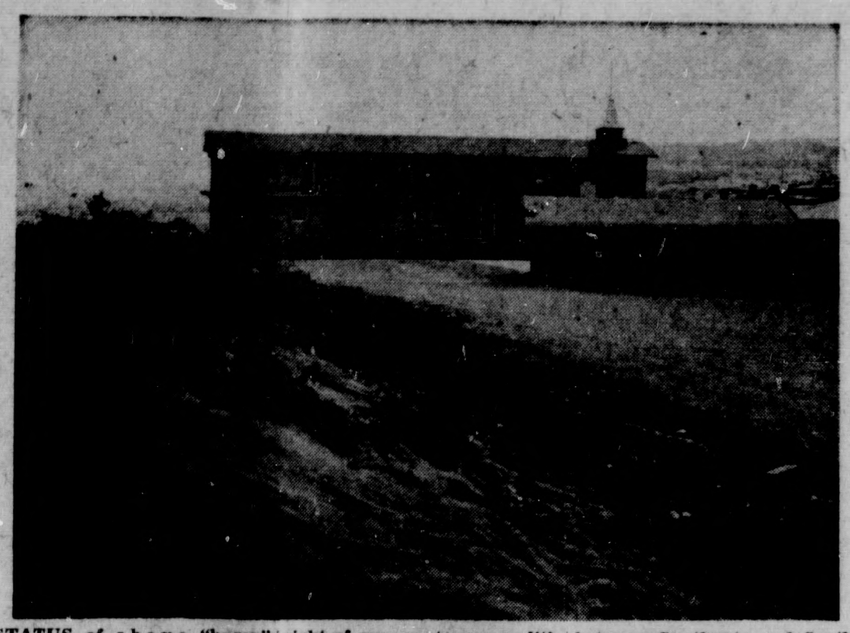
Louis Henry Vanini, 34, a Daly City mailman who lives at 492 Santa Barbara avenue, was found to be in "an extremely intoxicated condition" by Police Officer Al Nicolini last Thursday at 2:30 a.m.

Vanini was booked as being drunk on a public street and placed in a cell "for his own welfare," according to the police report.

Vandals Damage Doelger Vehicle

Vince Schoenstein, a foreman for the Doelger Company, 333 Park Plaza drive, reported that $200 damage was done to one of the company's trucks Tuesday evening last week.

Schoenstein, 1749 Alameda street, Redwood City, reported the vandalism to Charles Munday. He said the culprits apparently started the motor of a flat-bed truck and backed it into a parked truck several times.



STATUS of above "hump" property behind Our Lady of Mercy parish and school in Westlake may be decided December 28 in San Francisco when final hearing is scheduled on Ocean Shore Railroad right-of-way controversy—litigation that is in its tenth year. City Attorney Paul Hupf and attorneys for the parish and builder Henry Doelger claim the defunct railroad has forfeited title to this hilly stretch between Southgate and South Mayfair due to non-use of the property. A decision, at long last, is expected shortly.

32 Lights Stolen From Xmas Display

Lawrence Vanucci's Christmas spirit was dimmed last week when thieves stole a string of 32 lights from trees around his home at 32 Northgate avenue in Westlake.

He told Officer John Coleman the lights were valued at $8. Vanucci said the lights were stolen between 10:30 p.m. Wednesday and 9 a.m. Thursday.

The vibration may be due to loose unions, looseness in the flexible shaft, or too sharp a bend in the latter. A lack of lubrication or incorrect meshing of the gears are two other causes of speedometer troubles.

Cornelia Addison surrendered the cards without question, according to Police Officer Tom Culley. The International Charge Accounts office said they had no knowledge of a man by the name of Bob Ohosen working for them. "Ohosen" was the name given Mrs. Addison by the man.

Vista Mar Pupils Decorate School, Sing Xmas Carols

Santa is coming out of the chimney, snowflakes are fluttering, candles are glowing and there is the smell of pine in the courtyard.

For the past week the children at Vista Mar School have been busy creating visions of the holiday season. The primary children made ornaments and decorated the eight-foot Christmas tree given by the PTA, while the fourth, fifth, and sixth grade children made mobiles which are suspended around the inner court.

Youngsters in each classroom have worked on appropriate decorations for the windows.

Parents and friends will join the children and faculty this week to enjoy carols featuring "Christmas In Other Lands." Anita Thompson, fourth grade, will be featured, singing "Oh Christmas Tree" in German, the country of the song's origin.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

In the final scene of "The Visit" the townspeople once again gather at what had earlier been a shabby railway station, and one notices that the buildings are now bright and handsome. They are even decorated with colored lights. Although a check of the play fails to substantiate our impression, we had the feeling that the station was decorated for Christmas!

The curtain rises at the Curran on a railway station somewhere in Europe. The great passenger trains no longer stop here, all industry is shut down and life is now "rotting." The townspeople are awaiting the visit of Madame Zachanassian (Lynn Fontanne) who left the village as a disgraced young girl. She is now fabulously rich and powerful and the people hope that she will be gracious and remember kindly the village of her youth.

Madame is only too glad to be generous — a billion marks' worth of generosity. Everything has a price and her price is the life of Anton Schill (Alfred Lunt), the man who had betrayed her in the long ago. Now the town storekeeper he is the "most respected and best loved citizen." To the villagers' shocked "No," Madame replies calmly, "I can wait."

The size of the gift dulls their reactions only temporarily, and it's not long before the twonspeople realize the value of money. When they begin buying on credit, Schill knows they have made up their minds to sacrifice him for the "justice" Madame demands. After one wild attempt to escape, he bows his head in resignation to his fate.

Please don't ask us to comment on the performances of Lunt and Fontanne. In the wonder of their great presence we are humble and silent and grateful for their gift of "The Visit," which is like a dark crown placed atop their many glittery baubles of the past.

"The Visit" is the story of a will for revenge that lasted a lifetime. Its message is that hate is stronger than love and the roots of evil are everlasting. As it turns a blinding light on the drives that have brought mankind up from the swamps—selfishness, greed, viciousness and a bottomless capacity for self-deception — the meek join loudly in another chorus of "Peace on earth to men of goodwell" so that they may not hear the gnawing of the rats who will inherit the earth.

Hunter-Safety Class Offered Youngsters At Sears' SF Store

The California State law requires that before any youngster who has not yet reached his or her 16th birthday may purchase their first hunting license, they must pass a hunter-safety course which is prescribed by the State Department of Fish and Game. The course is an interesting and informative one that holds the interest of any boy or girl who enjoys the out-of-doors.

In the four-hour session, a variety of topics are covered, in addition to gun safety. Such subjects as, not getting lost, conservation of natural resources and rifle clubs are discussed and explained. It's a class which every outdoor minded youngster should attend as soon as possible. Whether they hope to go duck hunting later this fall, or they expect to do their hunting for the next year or so with a BB or pellet gun, they will benefit from the class.

The next Hunter-Safety class to be given by Sears, Roebuck & Co. at their Geary street store will be held on December 12 from 1 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. The size of each class is limited, therfore advance registration is necessary. A youngster may be registered at any time in the sporting goods section of the store. At the time of registration a Hunter-Safety Kit is furnished each student by Sears. This kit contains material that is to be studied before the youngster attends the class. There is no charge for the class nor the kit.

Since 1950 San Francisco has led all major cities in the country in population gains per square mile of land.

Something For Everyone

By SAM CHANDLER

At least once a week the people who work in the Daly City Public Libraries scan several lists of best-sellers. Although these lists are interesting and useful to us, they do not necessarily represent the preferences of the citizens of Daly City. With this thought in mind I ran a little survey last week to see what books or what kind of books would appear on Daly City's list of best-sellers if one were compiled.

Among the things I learned anew was that Daly City readers, by and large, seek entertainment first and literary merit second. As one man said, "We people in Daly City read to relax and to remove the tensions of the day."

This revelation sent me into an investigation of what kinds of books are the most entertaining and relaxing to Daly City readers. I learned for sure that mysteries are one type, science fiction is another, and novels is yet another. The readers resort to these types for several reasons. One woman said, "My husband likes mysteries because they keep him on the edge of his seat and he enjoys the emotion he feels." A young man said that he reads science fiction because it makes him feel good, and a lady confessed that she makes herself read the so-called classics, but what she enjoys most is an absorbing story about modern times.

To these people and all who agree with them we recommend the "latest book section." Here can be found the most recent best-sellers. The latest books by Earle Stanley Garner, Raymond Chandler, John Dickinson Carr, Richard Lockridge, Issac Asimov, Arthur Clarke, and many other writers of mysteries and science fiction. Here also can be found several hundred titles of late fiction, and the most recent picture books and also the most interesting new titles of non-fiction.

With the children of Daly City, picture books, books related to school subjects, novels of romance and adventure, and books about pre-historic man and animals are tremendously popular. But the best-sellers are books about space travel. As one bright child said, haven't got time to read any foolishness, 'cause I got to learn about space 'fore I go there."

Parents will be pleased to know that we have many books in the Daly City Public Libraries about space and, indeed, about all the subjects the children love. Each book has been carefully chosen to be informative yet interesting.

But whatever the tastes of the citizens of Daly City, each can be sure that the Public Library has something for him to read and enjoy. The Public Library has two branches: 6351 Mission and 34 Park Plaza.

Christmas Tree 'Precautions' Are Emphasized

The traditional burning of the Christmas tree outdoors is a thrilling sight, but when accidentally ignited indoors it can be a flaming funeral pyre, the National Safety Council said today.

"Filled with natural pitch and resin, the Christmas tree is one of the most combustible objects known—virtually impossible to extinguish by ordinary methods.

"When the needles fall," the Council said, "it should not be burned, branch by branch, in the fireplace, because the roaring fire is difficult to control. It should be burned outdoors, in fire-safe areas.

"The months of December and January," the Council added, "are the leading months for fire burns, and last year 93 fire deaths occurred during the Christmas holiday alone."

The Christmas tree tradition is a wonderful part of the season, the Council said, so keep it wonderful by observing these precautions:

1. Buy a tree no bigger than you need. The larger the tree, the larger the fire hazard.

2. Wait to put it up until just before Christmas. Keep it in a cold place until then.

3. Saw off, diagonally, at least an inch of the trunk and place in a stand filled with water.

4. Place tree away from sources of heat such as TV sets, radiators, powerful electrict lights, which speed up the drying process.

5. Use nonflammable decorations. Keep metallic icicles or tinsel away from light sockets. Dangling into the socket, they can cause short circuits or flash fires. Do not overload circuits, or replace normal fuses with oversized ones.

6. Use electric lights only. Be sure they bear the Underwriter's Laboratories label. Check for frayed cords, faulty sockets, loose connections. Provide a switch some distance from the tree to turn it on and off. Do not unplug tree lights underneath the tree.

7. Never use candles on the tree or around any combustible decorations.

8. Turn off tree lights before leaving the room or the house.

9. Don't operate electric toys, such as trains, beneath the tree. Arcs can ignite decorations or wrappings.

10. Use stool or ladder while trimming the tree. Let children decorate only lower branches. Don't smoke while trimming or dismantling.

11. Burn the tree in a fire-safe area outdoors. Some communities have tree-burning bonfires under the supervision of the fire department. If your community does not, contact your fire department and seek its cooperation. Youth organizations may collect the trees.

More Answers For Veterans

• • •

Q—I understand that a World War II veteran must file his application for a GI loan by July 25, 1960. Just what steps have been taken by that date?

A—By that date, a lender must at least have agreed to make the loan and must have requested VA's approval. The law allows up to an additional year, after that deadline, to complete the deal.

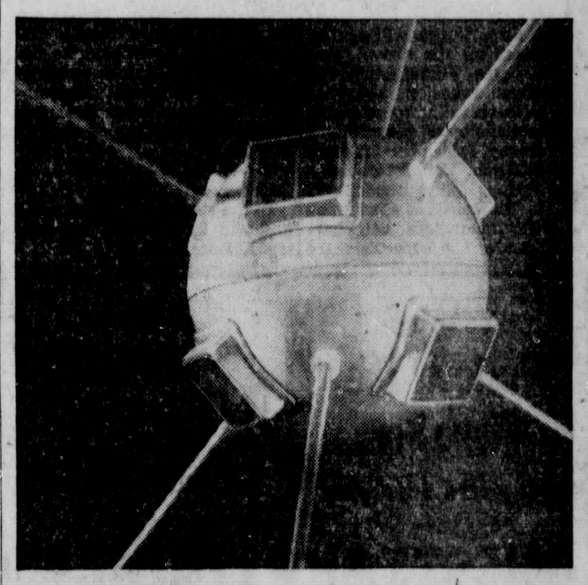
WHAT'S DOING

W. L. Conkey, your Telephone Manager in Daly City



Imagine circling the earth for 2000 years! I see where scientists say Vanguard I may last that long. But did you know two things circling with the satellite came from scientific research for your phone? They're transistors and solar batteries, both invented at Bell Telephone Laboratories, our research center. They team up to help Vanguard's radio send messages back to earth. The transistors act as amplifiers, and solar battery cells supply power from sunlight. Here on earth, solar batteries are still experimental as far as telephones go. But transistors help speed your out-of-town calls by automatically helping to pick the right voice path. So you see, the same telephone progress that helps us improve your service is also helping science explore outer space.

Here's an idea for a practical Christmas present that will really please someone in your family: an extension telephone. You can get a desk set like this one or a wall phone in many attractive colors. Could be just the thing for Mom's kitchen, or Dad's workshop. You can find out all about extension phones at our business office.

THIRD SERIES OF ART MOVIES SET AT STATE COLLEGE

The Creative Arts Division and the student's Art Club of San Francisco State College will present the third of the fall series of art movies on Wednesday, December 16, from 12 to 1 and from 7:30 to 9:15 on campus in the Main Theatre of the Creative Arts Building.

Admission is free. The following films will be shown: FACES IN THE SHADOWS, a Swedish film by Peter Weiss, is a moving contribution of this leading independent film maker to Europe's new direction towards Social Cinema.

ROUSSEAU: A TRIP IN THE LITTLE CART. It is in "The Little Cart," subject of one of Henri Rousseau's most famous paintings, that this film takes its trip through his own private world. The film presents the innocent and wise vision of this naive painter-poet who shares dignity and pictorial imagination with the greatest of the medieval primitives.

THE BESPOKE OVERCOAT, a British film based on Gogol's "The Overcoat," is a successful transfer into the medium of film of the dramatic phantasy of a tailor revisited by his deceased friend.

KANDINSKY, a recent German color film, describes the development of this earliest pioneer of Abstract Expressionism from the first non-objective painting to the important work he later did on Germany and France.

MOTIF is an exuberant and whimsical color abstraction made by stop-motion photography. A sparkling improvisation in water color, oil, and tempera techniques, it received the 1957 Film Foundation Award and was shown at the 1958 Brussels Experimental Film Festival.

YANTRA, for the first time, uses the motion picture medium as a "Yantra," which in Hindu devotional tradition is a medium for the stimulation of vision and meditation.

THE SONG OF JEAN RICHEPIN is a bizarre and savage experiment from Mexico, based on a poem by the French poet, Jean Richepin. Erotic symbolism and disturbing subject matter made this one of the most controversial films of the 1958 Brussels Experimental film Festival.

The first annual convention of the American Legion was held in Minneapolis in November, 1919.

'Good Show' By Band, Chorus For Jeff PTA

Even though Saint Nick was not visible to the naked eye, his spirit reigned supreme at Jefferson High School PTA's regular meeting in the cafeteria last Thursday night.

Hundreds of PTA members, friends and students attended a program steeped in the yuletide tradition.

A quartet of bays, Richard Bradford, Mike Grimes, Ken Bennett, all playing the bass baritone, and Ed Printemps, tuba, gave a surprise performance.

The boys, all versatile musicians, put on a comical act. At first it seemed as if they could not read notes. They concluded by playing perfectly.

David Manning's chorus of 35 members charmed the audience with their rendition of Christmas carols. Community singing followed.

Richard Lair, senior student, gave an account of his experiences at Boys' State in Sacramento last June.

Lair will participate in President Eisenhower's White House Youth Conference next spring.

Mrs. Marian Kramer, English teacher, made the introductions and announcements for the program.

The next regular meeting, "Our Founders," will be on February 18, with Mrs. Lillian Klassen in charge.

VISTA GRANDE PUPILS VISIT ZOO, LIBRARY

First grades of Hazel Colwell and Myrna Jones at Vista Grande School recently visited Fleishhacker Zoo. As introduction to a unit on zoo animals, the children went on a field trip. They are now making a box television program and experience charts of the animals they saw.

Riding the park toy train, playing on the playground equipment and eating lunch together were part of the pleasure of the trip.

ART GUILD CLUB FORMED AT WESTMOOR

Joining Westmoor High's list of co-curricular clubs is the newly formed Art Guild. Stiff scholastic requirements limit the membership, which now consists of 12 charter members. Jean Bomba, Janice Snyder, and Nancy Nepstead, were elected president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

Charter members are Larry Siegal, Karen Schroeter, David Mark, Pat Hunter, Thomas Bumm, Heather Lee, Judy Carr, John Flatbush, Nancy Galub, Jean Borba, Janice Snyder, and Nancy Nepstead. All members have had three semesters of high school art with not less than an "A" or "B", and carry a "C" average in their academic studies.

Furthering of the artistic development of the members through activities, will be the ideal of this club. Faculty sponsor for the group is Robert Nissen, art instructor at Westmoor.

Holy Angels Xmas Contest Means Trophies

Again this year, the local unit of the Italian-Catholic Federation will award trophies to members of Holy Angels Parish in Colma who have the best outdoor Christmas displays and decorations at their homes.

The displays must be religious in nature, according to Julie Landi, project chairman. Persons in the Colma and lower Daly City areas who wish to have their homes considered in the judging are asked to call Mrs. Landi as soon as possible at PL 5-3603.

The judging will be done next Monday evening, December 21, from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock by Father Long of Holy Angels.

LAW IN ACTION

DR. G. SAMARITAN

The good samaritan goes out of his way to help someone and, alas, often gets it in the neck for his pains.

But the recent California Legislature lifted its hand to help one kind of samaritan—the doctor who faces an emergency and must act without getting specific permission from his patient (who may well be unconscious).

People have long known that doctors had a moral if not a legal duty to aid someone imperiled in an emergency.

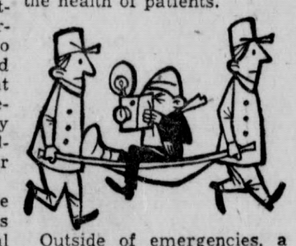
But in an automobile accident, say, such a doctor often had to hesitate—or take matters in his own hands at personal risk—to give help to someone he believed in good faith needed medical care at once. Sometimes, too, a specialist in such an emergency had to act outside his specialty, perhaps in an unfamiliar area.

At any rate the Legislature this time relieved persons licensed under the Medical Practice Act from civil liability for acts or omissions in good faith in giving care at the scene of an emergency.

Outside of emergencies the law holds doctors to certain standards. It sets out the kind of education and internship they must have.

In practice the law expects a doctor to look after his patients at least as well as do other doctors in good standing where he lives. Should a doctor hold himself out as a specialist, he is expected to meet the further standards of his specialty in the community.

The law allows that where there is a reasonable doubt as to the treatment doctors may use their best judgment, even if it turns out to be wrong. For otherwise, the doctor might hesitate to act at all, or choose a "safer" treatment, which would in time be harmful to the health of patients.



Outside of emergencies, a doctor, dentist, or hospital almost always requires a patient's consent for an operation.

Christmas Bureau Headquarters Accepts Yule Gifts For Needy

Youngsters of San Mateo County don't hesitate when it's a question of helping the less fortunate. Proof of this is announced by the Community Christmas Bureau.

The Junior Community Fund of the Redwood City School District, made up of elementary school pupils, sent the largest check to date to the Bureau, in the amount of $120. They voted that their fund was to be distributed at Christmas among the needy.

In South San Francisco, Girl Scout Troops, representing all neighborhoods throughout the area, sent a truck load of approximately 3 hundred wrapped Christmas gifts to the Bureau, the outcome of their organized "Festival of Gifts" and designed for the many teen-agers and elderly shut-ins on the Department of Health and Welfare rolls.

Meanwhile, more contributions are making their way to the Christmas Bureau headquarters, Naval Training Center Baldwin Avenue and San Mateo Drive, San Mateo. There is still urgent need for organizations and church groups to answer the Christmas needs of individual families, stated Mrs. Ernest Pohlhammer, Bureau Chairman. She is also asking for new toys and clothing, stressing that contributions are intended as Christmas gifts and that old and battered articles cannot be used. Gifts of checks, she added, should be sent to the Community Christmas Bureau, addressed P. O. Box 82, San Mateo, California.

Late cases of need at the Bureau are:

No. 15309: The mother and father are separated in this family of four children, the oldest of whom is fifteen. They need all types of clothing, including sweaters, nightgowns, as well as, groceries to make up a Christmas dinner.

No. 5376: There are seven children under fourteen years of age in this family. Gifts of food, clothing, toys are badly needed.

No. 5134: Since her husband is in jail, a young mother of 24 must act as the head of her family of four children, ranging from 4 months to six years. They would love a turkey for Christmas, dolls, a doll buggy, a rifle rocket.

No. 15213: The father deserted this family of a mother and four children, under eight years of age. They'd appreciate anything in the way of Christmas rememberances.

No. 15378: These young parents of 21 and 18 are trying desperately to support their two youngsters, one, two years of age, the other, six months. They are also in desperate need of shoes, clothing, food, toys.

No. 3434: A Christmas dinner is in the dream of this broken family, parents separated, and the five children between four and a half and eight and a half years of age.

No. 413-3190: A thirty-two year old mother, divorced from a mentally ill husband, cannot provide Christmas to her four youngsters. Not only working part-time, she must also care for the children's grandparents, both in poor health, with whom she and her children are residing. She needs groceries, clothing, and toys for the youngsters, who are between six and ten years of age.

No. 3270: Both parents are in wheel chairs. Their little girl of three will be denied ordinary necessities, as well as a Yuletide unless someone will remember her with clothing, a doll, doll dishes. Help for the parents is also urgently needed.

Christmas 'Deadliest Holiday' Of All, Safety Council Warns

It would be interesting to discover, in this era of motivation research, what the word "holiday" means to most people. What is the first thing that flashes to mind when the word is mentioned?

Time off from work? A trip? An excuse to celebrate? A tragic accident toll?

Unfortunately, truthful answers probably would place all of those higher on the list than the true meaning of the holiday. And it's especially unfortunate that holidays must have an association with high accident tolls.

Christmas, with the deepest spiritual significance, is the deadliest holiday of all, according to the National Safety Council. Ironically, it achieves this terrible distinction precisely because we want it to be such a wonderful occasion.

It is a sentimental holiday. People will drive long distances for the traditional family reunion, undaunted by the worst weather. More travel — especial winter travel at highway speeds — means more accidents.

It is a convivial holiday. The joyous spirit of the occasion is too often sought in liquid form.

This deadly conjunction of the throttle and bottle has dimmed the true radiance from the star of Bethlehem.

The National Safety Council has asked for church leadership during this Christmas season to point out that accident prevention is practical religion, and that good will toward men can find no finer expression than behind the wheel of a car.

Cal Taxpayers Association Says Adult School Outlays 'Unfair'

Charging that "Taxpayers should not have to foot the bill for adults who want to pursue hobbies via the classroom, or take foreign languages because they plan a trip abroad," E. Maxwell Benton, Schools Consultant, California Taxpayers' Association, today urged that "Reasonable fees should be charged for all but selected academic courses, thus relieving the taxpayer of burdensome recreational and self-advancement classes. The cost of much of the adult education program should be carried by those who benefit directly from the classes."

Speaking before the Subcommittee on Adult Education of the Assembly Interim Committee on Education which met last week in Los Angeles, Benton told the committee that the association does not seek to eliminate "desirable and useful" adult education classes. "However, we do seek to reduce the state subsidy for adults," he said. "Specifically, we suggest that you redefine adult education average daily attendance (ADA) which is the basis of school apportionments. It is within your power to define adult education ADA so that state support is only available for classes in English and Citizenship and academic courses leading to a diploma."

Benton emphasized that, according to the State Department of Education, only about 30 percent of the total adult education enrollment was in academic subjects and in Citizenship and English for foreigners. Pointing out that state school fund apportionments for adult education now approximate $11 million, Benton observed that "If the subsidy for all other adult classes were reduced or eliminated, as much as $7-8 million might be made available for support of the regular educational program. This saving is something to think about since growth requirements are approximately $40 million each year in added state school support."

The Cal-Tax statement continued "We believe that school districts should be encouraged to charge tuition fees in such areas as business education, trade, industrial and shop courses, crafts, fine arts, music and homemaking education. Taxpayers should not have to pay all the costs of courses which train adults so that they may improve their economic status. Taxpayers should not have to foot the bill for adults who want to pursue hobbies via the classroom, or take foreign languages because they plan a trip abroad. Responsible adults can afford to pay a reasonable fee for such courses.

"The continually growing school population is making it increasingly difficult to provide sufficient funds to finance the regular day school programs for the education of our children. They must have top priority," Benton concluded.

WAITING in line to receive an important piece of paper proclaiming their promotion to master sergeant, these five Fort Ord career men represent nearly 100 years of military service. Presenting the sergeants with their rank boost is Captain Henry E. Trawick (right), commanding officer of Headquarters Company, U. S. Army Training Center. The sergeants, from left to right: Marion Ping, Robert W. Forayter, Albert F. Gaines, John F. Sobota and William E. Backell. Sergeant Backell lives with his wife, Shirley, and four daughters, Carolyn, Barbara, Janet and Heidi, at 968 Wildwood avenue, Daly City.

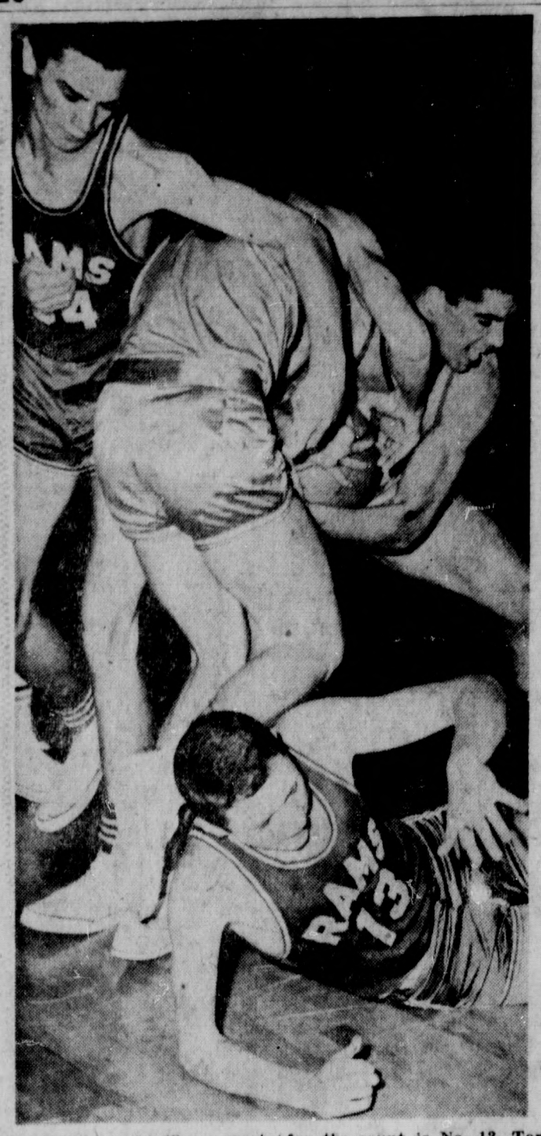
Rams Second In League Tourney; Dougherty, Krohn On First Team



THOUGH it looks like a wrestling match, this bit of action took place Saturday at the Westmoor - Capuchino play - off game for the Peninsula League Tourney championship. Down for the count is No. 13, Terry Christman of Westmoor, while Andy Saranchock wraps an arm around Barry Rothman of Cap. Fighting Rothman for the ball is his teammate, Bob Turner.

PENINSULA TOURNEY

Ram Cagers Score 'First Ever' Win Over Jeff Varsity, 39-28

Westmoor's varsity moved into the second round of the Peninsula League tournament by limiting Jeff to only two field goals in the second half and gaining a 39-28 decision last Thursday. The Indians were ahead, 19-15, at the half.

It was the first time ever that the Rams have beaten Jefferson's varsity. The span goes back four years and includes 110 and 120-pound lightweight games before Westmoor even had a varsity. Westmoor's only other win over Jefferson came this semester when the Ram 120's gained a forfeit decision, though they lost the game on the court.

Jeff's first half splurge was due to the shooting of big Jack Horn. Unlike little Jack Horner, he didn't sit in a corner. He was under the basket for short jump shots or outside for long jumpers. He hit 10 of his 15 markers in the first half.

Gary Molossi had six points in the first half, combining with Horn to keep Jeff ahead. Molossi had 9 points in all.

Westmoor had three more shots in the first half with 23 field goal attempts. Both teams connected 7 times from the field. In the second half the Rams became boiling hot. Paced by Barry Krohn and Terry Christman, the Westmoorites hit 9 of 13 tries. Jeff had but 2 of 19.

Final shooting figures showed Westmoor with 44 per cent and Jeff with a lowly 23 per cent.

The complexion of the game changed in the second half. Clark Beerman's 12 foot jump shot from the right side pulled the Rams to within two points. After Horn of Jeff tossed in a charity both Christman and Beerman did likewise to pull the Rams to within one point.

A quick pass to Christman, who was all alone under the bucket, and an easy shot put Westmoor ahead to stay at 21-20 with 1:42 left in the third period. It was the first time Tony Giammona's crew went ahead in this game.

Jeff was most proficient at the foul line, pushing 8 of 9 through the hoop. Westmoor made 9 of 18.

Burlingame was the only club not to place a man on the 10 man team. Dougherty was selected mostly for his fine play in the second game when he 16 points led the Rams past San Mateo, 47-45. His ball handling and foul shooting were superb in this contest in particular.

Krohn was steady throughout the tourney. He only had 27 points but split them almost equally in the three games while being a rugged performer and rebounder. He was a stout defender from the outside forward position also.

Horn, of the Indians, didn't show too much scoring potential before the tourney but clicked for 15 and 9 points in two games. He was also outstanding as a rebounder.

Locals Split Last Two Games; Beat Bearcats, Lose To Cap

Neil Calhoon, an All-Tourney selectee, made the first two points in the final game against Westmoor and Capuchino never was behind again, capturing a 52-44 verdict from the Rams for the championship.

Westmoor pulled within one point of the champs four times, but the Mustangs fought off all challenges to give Coach Jim Johnston the crown. The tiring effect in this third game in three nights showed in the first half when the score was but 19-15 at the half.

The Rams held high scoring Calhoon in check during the first half but little Mike Bunker consistently potted long set shots. Bunker was high with 16 markers. Calhoon, though operating with four fouls against him during most of the second half, was close to Bunker in scoring with 15 points.

Barry Krohn kept the Rams in the tilt most of the first half and wound up with 10 digits. Other starters points were Andy Saranchock, 8, Clark Beerman, 9, Bill Doughterty, 6, Terry Christman, 2.

Dick Reese, who only saw a minute or two of action in the other two games, walked off the bench and did a tidy job. He connected for 7 points while taking the place of Christman who was having an off night.

Westmoor's cold first half, was as much of a determining factor as Calhoon's smoth ballhandling at the stalling end.

Mills, which had lost by only one point to Cap the previous night in a see-saw battle, completely fell apart against San Mateo. The Bearcats easily riddled Mills, 58-33, to capture third place in the tournament. Dave Balsley had 19 points for the winners.

Westmoor moved into the finals of the tourney by gaining an 11 point advantage at the begining of the fourth quarter and then holding on for dear life to gain a 47-45 pencil thin win over San Mateo. The Bearcats made 20 points the final quarter.

The game was tied three times, 13-13, 15-15 and 17-17. Bill Dougherty looped a free toss for the go ahead point and Westmoor never had the scoreboard against them again.

Dougherty was a ball of fire. Towards the end, when points were as scarce as S.F. 49er Championships, the 5-11 senior shot through the middle for a lay-up or made a foul line try. He pushed 16 points in for the night.

The game was a true team effort. It couldn't have been won without the backboard power shown by center Clark Beerman or his forward helper Andy Saranchock. Terry Christman and Barry Krohn stopped many of the Bearcats passes from going into the post position while on defense.

Christman tossed in five valuable infraction hoops, and added three field goals to rank next to Dougherty with a total of 11 points, Saranchock had 8, Beerman 7, and Krohn, 6. Bob Little had 16 markers for the Mateans.

San Mateo had one try at the bucket, with two seconds left. The long set shot dive-bombed off the front rim as the buzzer sounded. Westmoor made 17 of 29 and San Mateeo 8 of 15 free tosses.

Jeff's Indians were dropped from Tourney play by Hillsdale last Friday by a 53-42 count. Jack Horn had his second good night in a row by potting 9 points

J. D. Berry was the Indian scoring leader with 13 markers, most of his field goals of the long set-shot variety. Pat Bell was third in scoring with 6 points.

Hillsdale kept their half time pace almost intact, climbing from the 28-18 lead to the 53-42 final. Hank Moritz's 19 digits led the winners.

SPORTS SPIN

By LOU LUCIA

Christmas is nearly upon us so thinking of Daly City's coaches, here is what we wish Santa Sports would bring them:

MIKE ORLICH: Paul Silas, McClymonds High center who is a sure bet to make All-American prep "or there just isn't any justice in this world of ours," according to his coach, Paul Harless. Silas is but 16 years old and still growing at 6-7, 185 pounds. Last year he hit 287 points in 21 games.

TONY GIAMMONA: A pair of stilts so he could watch the basketball game instead of having two billion kids walking in front of him.

ERNIE RIBERA: The cast molding that Ray Norton, "the world's fastest human," came out of. Unfortunately there doesn't seem to be any of these molds around.

BOB WATT: One ear muff. This would keep the other ear warm while Bob holds the phone up to his right ear at the football games.

PETE MATISI: A new healthy ballplayer of the Tom McHugh type for 1960.

JOE McGRATH: Some sophomores and juniors who were as outstanding as linemen Joe Bollentini and Ed Crowley.

ROD LOSBERGER: A full healthy crew of baseballers all season long.

STEVE MEZZERA: A first baseman as good as Roy Reitz and catcher as able as Jerry Kennedy were last year.

BYRON VAN ALSTYNE: Five 130 players as good as he is at the sport.

BOB BLEVINS: A fake pair of cauliflower ears so that his Westmoor wrestlers won't get any during the season.

. . . TONY DiVIRGILIO

RICK WARNE: Four more Tony DiVirgilio's for his lightweights.

FLOYD GONELLA: More space for the "tiny fella" in the Westmoor PE office.

ROGER MILLER: A few of the Pacifica lads who will not be able to play JV ball because of the double sessions.

Indians, Bears Claw Each Other In Cage Game

Jeff High's cagers lost a rough 'n tumble foul line contest to Mission of San Francisco last Wednesday, 47-30, on the Indian court.

An amazing 55 free shots were taken, Mission getting 30 of these. The Bears connected 11 times but Jeff had the advantage here by converting 14 of 25.

The game was a put and take affair, Mission leading 25-24 at one time. Bearishbuilt Orlando Camp, 6-9 Mission center, had 14 points and dominated the backboards for the invaders.

Indian chances dimmed when Hiram Sibley fouled out. Sibley, small in comparison to Camp at 6-3, had four fouls at halftime and saw limited action in the second half. He slipped during a "mixing" under the basket and fouled a Bear cager, putting him out of the contest.

From that point, the Mission cagers went on a spree. Pat Bell, of Jeff, missed five first shots on the 1-1 free throw ruling and this didn't aid the Indians cause. Gary Molossi's 8 points paced the losers.

Jeff Wrestlers Pinned By San Mateo Bearcats

San Mateo's varsity and JV's steam-rollered over Jefferson's wrestlers last Friday in a league match.

Only JV winners for Jeff were Jim Belvin, 133 pounds, who pinned his opponent, and Vic Steyrer, 165 pounds, who decisioned his foe.

Charley DeArman gained his second consecutive pin by knocking off his opponent in this manner. The other varsity victor was Bob Nielson who was declared a decision winner. These were the only two matches Jeff garnered.

Varsity results: 103 — Jower (SM) pinned Schultz (J); 112 — Humphrey (SM) pinned Gomez (J); 120—DeArman (J) pinned Shimamoko (SM); 127 —Culver (SM) Decisioned Young (J).

133—Lewis (SM) decisioned Bostrom (J); 138 — Crawford (SM) pinned Ennen (J); 145—Saprono decisioned Kasper (J); 154—Fife (SM) pinned Parker (J); 165—Tresser (SM) pinned Albert (J); 175—Nielson (J) decisioned Brownson (SM); 191 —Holm (SM) pinned Prado (J); and unlimiteds — Corser (SM) pinned Keck (J).

The power required to operate the five artificial ice rinks at Squaw Valley, California, site of the Winter Olympics Febr. 18-28, 1960, would service 4800 refrigerators. Ticket information may be obtained by writing Olympic Winter Games, San Francisco.

W'moor Grapplers Third In Novice Events Saturday

Leading the way for the Rams were Sam Tellez, 112 pounds, and Dave Kitchen, 191 pounds, who took first place positions. Runnerup spots went to Dennis Hanke, 133, and Ralph Rogers, 138.

The teams finished as follows: 1. San Mateo 2. Capuchino 3. Westmoor 4. South San Francisco 5. Mills 6. Burlingame.

Jefferson was the only school with a mat team that did not compete in the tourney. All wrestlers who had never won a medal before were allowed to compete Saturday.

After six matches Friday, Westmoor was ahead of Capuchino, 13-11, but the Mustangs rebounded to win the final six grappling events and take the 35-13 decision. Tellez again came through in a sterling performance, pinning his adversary as did Meet Captain Glenn Stenstrom in the 120-pound division.

Merchants Mash Foes To Take 7th Grade Title

Players in the Department of Parks and Recreation's Touch Football Leagues only completed three of last Saturady's eight scheduled league games due to the sudden and unexpected cloud burst.

Daly City Merchants were officially crowned 7th grade league champs when they defeated BYA-Snell Indians, 37-7. Duey Haught scored four times and Dan Driscol once for the Merchants. The only Indian score came on a 41-yard pass play from S. Smith to R. Ertola.

The Merchants this year scored on overwhelming 225 points and held opponents to a total of 20 while marching to a perfect 7-0 league mark. Coaches Roger Kucich Sr. and Al Driscol said the team averaged 40 points a game as one tilt was one by forfeit.

Virtually the same team that won the North County Intermediate League earlier this fall as the Holy Angels club of Colma, the Merchant's new players were Mike Keelen, and Mick and Mike Krnich.

Snell-Bya Stars beat OLPH, 21-6, to take second place honors. The season's two longest pass plays featured the Stars' scoring. Grant Gardner threw both passes, one to Joaquin Andrade for 79 yards and the other to Ron Baker for 65 yards.

In the only other game of the day, the second place sixth grade BYA Rams beat the PAL Devilpups, 25-6. Carl Fleischauer returned two punts 60 yards apiece to feature the BYA scoring.
